Matthew 18:32–34

A man was brought to the ruler of the synagogue, and when he presented him before him, he said, "Your daughter is dead. Why trouble the Teacher anymore?"

But Jesus, being severely provoked, turned and said to him, "Do not fear, only believe, and she will be saved."

When the ruler of the synagogue heard these words, he was filled with fear and said to him, "Be of good cheer, only believe."

And the daughter, having risen from the dead, came to him. Then the report spread throughout all the region around him.
